

A selection of short films and activities
tailored to your audience

ADULTS

THE NFB IN LIBRARIES

ACTIVITY SHEET
(short films)

THE NFB IN LIBRARIES – ACTIVITY SHEET (SHORT FILMS)

ADULTS

A selection of short films and activities
tailored to your audience

FEATURED FILMS

- In the Closet
- The Sounds of Things Ablaze
- Paradaiz
- Good Luck to You All
- Bread Will Walk
- My Knitting Circle

2026–2027 COMPILATIONS – CURATED SELECTIONS

Bodies, Boundaries and Becoming (78 min)

- The Muse (18 min)
- Am I the skinniest person you’ve ever seen? (24 min)
- My Knitting Circle (13 min)
- Feather Fall (23 min)

Award-Winning NFB Animation (68 min)

- The Girl Who Cried Pearls (17 min)
- Hypersensitive (6 min)
- Imprint (4 min)
- Society of Clothes (15 min)
- Loca (5 min)
- The Sounds of Things Ablaze (7 min)
- Samaa (2 min)
- The Painting (12 min)

FILM IDEAS FOR AWARENESS DAYS

National Indigenous Languages Day (March 31)

- To Wake Up the Nakota Language
- Tomson Highway: kipimâtisinaw tapâpeyahk
- Jeremy Dutcher: A Sonic Rematriation

International Day for Digital Learning (March 19)

- Good Luck to You All

World Food Day (October 16)

- Bread Will Walk

International Day of Peace (September 21)

- Paradaiz
- The Sounds of Things Ablaze

ACTIVITIES AROUND THE FILMS

1) Screening + Discussion

After watching Bread Will Walk, invite participants to discuss the theme of overconsumption, using the film—an adaptation of the filmmaker’s graphic novel—as a starting point. To enrich the conversation, read this blog post: “Bread Will Walk: The ‘Baking-Of.’”

2) Screening + Discussion

After watching Good Luck to You All, invite participants to share their reactions to the film and their feelings about artificial intelligence. This activity could include guest speakers on the topic or be integrated into a course introducing AI.