

A selection of short films and activities
tailored to your audience

KIDS

THE NFB IN LIBRARIES

---

ACTIVITY SHEET
(short films)

THE NFB IN LIBRARIES – ACTIVITY SHEET (SHORT FILMS)

KIDS

A selection of short films and activities
tailored to your audience

FEATURED FILMS

- The Girl Who Cried Pearls
- My Friend the Green Horse
- The Great List of Everything
- The Girl with the Red Beret
- Maybe Elephants

2026–2027 COMPILATIONS – CURATED SELECTIONS

Oscar® Winners and Nominees (51 min)

- The Girl Who Cried Pearls (17 min)
- The Cat Came Back (7 min)
- The Sand Castle (13 min)
- The Tender Tale of Cinderella Penguin (9 min)
- Blackfly (5 min)

Stories on the Move (59 min)

- The Danish Poet (15 min)
- Big Drive (9 min)
- Here and There (9 min)
- Hedgehog’s Home (10 min)
- Maybe Elephants (16 min)

FILM IDEAS FOR AWARENESS DAYS

International Youth Day (August 12)

- My Friend the Green Horse

Francophonie Month (March)

- The Girl with the Red Beret

World Tourism Day (September 27)

- Maybe Elephants

ACTIVITIES AROUND THE FILMS

1) Film + Discussion

After watching My Friend the Green Horse, invite kids to talk about dreams—both the comforting ones and the ones that can be unsettling.

2) Film + Creative Activity

After watching The Girl Who Cried Pearls, invite kids to create a patchwork art piece.

Organizer tip: Read “Anarchists of Animation: How the Creators of The Girl Who Cried Pearls Broke Every Rule—and Made Magic” on the NFB website for additional context.

3) Story Creation Activity

Encourage kids to invent their own stories after watching The Girl Who Cried Pearls or one or more episodes of The Great List of Everything.